

AIRMEN SINK SHIP. The former German light cruiser Frankfurt going to the bottom of the Atlantic off the Virginia Coast. The bomb that failed to hit its target exploded at the water edge a few feet away. This was enough to send the cruiser down.

"FLOATING FISH." That's the name of the new surfboard. The owner is Helen Smith, of Boston.

TAKES A TUMBLE. A tense moment in bulldogging steer contest of Prescott Frontier Days, held at Prescott, Arizona. The rider, jumping from his horse, missed the horns of the steer.

HORSE WORKS HARD. A few minutes after this photograph was taken, the horse was romping about minus rider at Prescott, Ariz.

BUILDING A BRIDGE. There is much to do in building bridges besides actual construction. The Delaware River Bridge Commission has started its detail work in earnest at its offices, Widener Building. H. E. Dixon, draftsman, is looking over plans with Clement E. Chase, engineer. The stenographers are Helen and Mary McShane.

GEORGE A. WELSH talks on the advantages of a city college in an Editorial Page interview.

CELEBRATING HIS BIRTHDAY. Captain Charles H. Fitzgerald doing handstand on tops of buildings along Broadway, New York.

JOHN LUCAIRCHCH, whose wife was murdered at the rear of 122 Spruce street, is holding baby Victoria, who has just received a pink plush Teddy Bear. Mary, the oldest child, is with them.

COMPANY RECORDS. Corporal J. F. Cassidy, 1940 North Twentieth street, is doing the bookkeeping for Co. H, Machine-Gun Co. of the 111th Regiment.

ENGLAND'S BEST BATSMAN. J. B. Hobbs, of Surrey, was taken ill just as the British faced the Australian cricketers. Hobbs posed with son.

JOSEPH M. STEELE, builder, active in Chamber of Commerce and Y. M. C. A. work, snapped on Broad street.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

DORA RISKIN, 240 McClellan street, and Catherine Carey, 425 Sigel street, operating machine that finishes 500 bags a day in the mill of the Philadelphia Bag Co., 84 Tasker street.

MISS LISA NORRIS, Philadelphia, at Scarborough Beach Club, Narragansett Pier.

MISS LILLIAN STRUNTZ finds an inner tube of great assistance in learning to swim.

DAVID M. ORLAFF, 2442 South Sixteenth street. Eight years in service. Route: Chestnut to Walnut, Fourth to Fifth street.

SPLASH! The girls of Gloucester City have a wonderful time as they swim waded in the Delaware River along the Jersey side. They did a lot of splashing when the photographer pointed his camera toward them.
